SUBJECT INDEX TO VOLUME LV

ABNORMALITIES, blood vessel, Resections of renal pelvis and other plastic operations for hydronephrosis, end-results in thirteen cases, 508
American College of Surgeons—
Clinical Congress, 1932 meeting in St. Louis, preliminary program, 259, 391, 531
Ampulla of vater, Successful resection of, including a portion of duodenum with choledochoduodenostomy for carcinoma of, 648
Anæsthesia, New method for graphically recording the contractions of parturient human uterus, study of effect of certain sedatives, and stimulants upon uterus in labor, 45; Respiratory complications following general, 162; Avertin in gynecology, report of three hundred consecutive cases, 191; Experimental studies in subarachnoid, paralysis of vital medullary centers, 290; Spinal zone, placed at will and dosage individually graded, 317
Anatomy, Surgical, of so called presacral nerve, 581
Aneurism, Vascular anomalies of extremities, report of five cases, 227; thoracic, Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523
Anhydræmia, as possible cause of death in liver autolysis, 427
Anus, Surgical anatomy of so called presacral nerve, 581
Appendicitis, Fatal acute appendix, ed. 246
Appendix, Fatal acute, ed. 246; Importance of clinical diagnosis in surgical conditions of abdomen, ed. 382; Mucoid carcinoma of the gastro-intestinal tract, so called colloid cancer, 409; Tumors of, 590
Argentine, Cancer research in the, ed. 524
Arterial flow, Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523
Arthritis, Relation of pyogenic, to osteomyelitis, 74; Surgery of ankylosed joint, 747
Arthrodesis, Unusual considerations affecting reconstructive surgery for paralytics, 203
Asphyxia neonatorum, causes and treatment by prolonged artificial respiration, report of sixty-six cases, 432
Avertin, in gynecology, report of three hundred consecutive cases, 191

BACILLURIA, Tuberculous, and excretion tuberculosis, experimental study, 440; Spontaneous pyelitis in rabbit, ascending infection of urinary tract, its relationship to this disease in man, 449
Bacterial concretions, in kidney pelvis, with report of two personal cases, 360
Bile ducts, Changes in, and parietal sacculi following absence of gall bladder, 168; Carcinoma of gall bladder and, 308
Bladder, Relation of diverticula of, to obstruction of vesical neck, 104; Spontaneous pyelitis in rabbit, ascending infection of urinary tract, its relationship to this disease in man, 449; Technique of suprapubic implantation of radon seeds in carcinoma of, 487; Influence of gynecological conditions on genito-urinary tract as shown by simultaneous injections of skiodan or uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490; Surgical anatomy of so called presacral nerve, 581; Incidence and prevention of perivesical suppuration following suprapubic cystotomy, 663
Blood changes, Anhydræmia as possible cause of death in liver autolysis, 427
Blood chemistry, Lethal factors in intestinal obstruction, ed. 383
Blood count in cholecystitis, Acute gall bladder manifesting few signs or symptoms, 709
Blood flow in varicose veins, Mechanics of reverse, as proved by blood pressure readings, its clinical application to injection treatment, 298
Blood pressure, Studies on peripheral vascular phenomena, new device for study of peripheral vascular phenomena in health and disease, 731, 737
Blood vessels, Vascular anomalies of extremities, report of five cases, 227; Mechanics of reverse flow of blood in varicose veins as proved by blood pressure readings, its clinical application to injection treatment, 298; Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523; Studies on peripheral vascular phenomena, new device for study of peripheral vascular phenomena in health and disease, 731, 737
Bobbs, John Stough, The Indiana Central Medical College, 792
Bone, Relation of pyogenic arthritis to osteomyelitis, 74; Maggots and their use in treatment of chronic osteomyelitis, 177
Bowel, The surgical treatment of tuberculosis of the large, 494
Brain, Peptic ulcers and interbrain, 1; wet, Eclampsia, its prevention and control by means of fluid limitation and dehydration, 129; Resection of pituitary adenomata, 330; Acute head injury, study of one thousand cases, 365; Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523; Unilateral exophthalmos in intracranial tumors with special reference to its occurrence in meningiomata, 681
Breast, Technique of operation for cancer of female, end-results in 129 cases 7 years after operation, 742; Mortality factors in gynecology, statistical study of deaths from 1902 to 1932 at Free Hospital for Women, Brookline, 777
Bronchus, Primary carcinoma of lung, with report of cases treated by operation, 151
Burns, Hydrogen-ion concentration value of tannic acid solutions used in treatment of, 455

CÆCUM, Surgical treatment of tuberculosis of large bowel, 494
Cancer, Research in the Argentine, ed. 524; Menace of repeated examinations in, ed. 667
Cancer clinic, Importance of trained radiologist in every, cor. 676
Children, diseases of, Solid pure fibroma of mesentery in children, 244
Cholecystectomy, Carl Langenbuch and first cholecystectomy, ed. 117
Cholecystitis, Acute gall bladder manifesting few signs or symptoms, 709
Choledochoduodenostomy, Successful resection of ampulla of vater, including portion of duodenum with choledochoduodenostomy for carcinoma of ampulla of vater, 648
Cholesterol, distribution of, Cancer research in the Argentine, ed. 524; Challenge to physicists, ed. 666

Circulation of blood, Acceleration of, by operative measures, ed. 523
Clinical pathological conference, ed. 785
Colitis, Indications for and technique of ileostomy in chronic ulcerative, 196
Colles' fracture, Fractures of wrist, review of one hundred seventy-six cases, 377
Colon, Indications for and technique of ileostomy in chronic ulcerative colitis, 196; Mucoid carcinoma of gastro-intestinal tract, so called colloid cancer, 409; Surgical treatment of tuberculosis of the large bowel, 494; Exteriorization and obstructive resection of carcinoma of sigmoid, 501
Constipation, Exteriorization and obstructive resection of carcinoma of sigmoid, 501
Copper, Challenge to physicists, ed. 666
Cranium, Unilateral exophthalmos in intracranial tumors with special reference to its occurrence in the meningiomata, 681
Cystotomy, suprapubic, Incidence and prevention of perivesical suppuration following, 663

DEHYDRATION, Eclampsia, prevention and control by means of fluid limitation and, 129; Lethal factors in intestinal obstruction, ed. 383
Diagnosis, Pelvic, by roentgen visualization, 207; Hæmangioma of vertebræ, 374; Importance of clinical, in surgical conditions of abdomen, ed. 382
Diseases, of children, Hernia in infant, report of thirty-one cases, 505
Diverticulum, Meckel's, Etiology of gastric and duodenal ulcer, experimental studies, 265
Duodenum, Peptic ulcers and the interbrain, 1; Etiology of gastric and duodenal ulcer, experimental studies, 265; Recent developments in treatment of gastric lesions, 355; Successful resection of ampulla of vater, including portion of the duodenum with choledochoduodenostomy for carcinoma of the ampulla of vater, 648

EARLY American Hospitals: Pennsylvania Hospital of Philadelphia, 124
Early American Medical Schools: Rock Island Medical College and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Upper Mississippi, 252; Laporte University School of Medicine and the Indiana Medical College, 673; Indiana Central Medical College, 792
Eclampsia, its prevention and control by means of fluid limitation and dehydration, 129
Electrohæmostasis, in place of ligatures, presentation of small, simple apparatus for electrocoagulation, 100
Electrosurgery, Electrohæmostasis in place of ligatures, presentation of a small, simple apparatus for electrocoagulation, 100
Emphysema, Obstructive pulmonary, and collateral respiration, 303
Encephalitic antibody globulin solution in, hiccup, 700
Epididymis, Primary malignant neoplasms of, 111
Estrual cycle, Study of effects of roentgen rays on, and ovaries of white rat, 596
Exophthalmos, Unilateral, in intracranial tumors with special reference to its occurrence in meningiomata, 681
Extremities, lower, Benign angiomatous tumors of skeletal muscles, 464
Eye, Physiological responses of ectopic ovarian and endometrial tissue, 553
Eyeball, Unilateral exophthalmos in intracranial tumors with special reference to its occurrence in meningiomata, 681

FALLOPIAN tubes, Ovarian pregnancy, 643
Fingers, Wire extension treatment of fractures of, and metacarpal bones, 87; Fractures of metacarpals and phalanges, 758
Fluid intake, Eclampsia, prevention and control by means of fluid limitation and dehydration, 129
Flushes, Surgical menopause after hysterectomy with and without ovarian conservation, 728
Fractures, Wire traction in, of lower extremity, 213

GALL bladder, Changes in bile ducts and parietal sacculi following absence of, 168; Carcinoma of, and bile ducts, 308; Importance of clinical diagnosis in surgical conditions of abdomen, ed. 382; Visceral pain, 418; Successful resection of ampulla of vater, including portion of duodenum with choledochoduodenostomy for carcinoma of ampulla of vater, 648; Acute, manifesting few signs or symptoms, 709
Gall stones, Challenge to physicists, ed. 666
Ganglionectomy, Studies on peripheral vascular phenomena, observations on peripheral circulatory changes following unilateral cervical, and ramisectomy, 737
Gastro-intestinal tract, Mucoid carcinoma of, so called colloid cancer, 409; Syphilis of jejunum, with case report, 518
Genito-urinary tract, Relation of diverticula of bladder to obstruction of vesical neck, 104; Influence of gynecological conditions on, as shown by simultaneous injections of skiodan or uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490
Gilmer, Thomas L., 670
Goiter, Geographic pathology of, 35; Thyrotoxicosis in negro, 221
Gynecology, Avertin in, report of three hundred consecutive cases, 191; Influence of gynecological conditions on genito-urinary tract as shown by simultaneous injections of skiodan or uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490; Mortality factors in gynecology, statistical study of deaths from 1902 to 1932 at Free Hospital for Women, Brookline, 777

HALPENNY, Jasper, 527
Hæmorrhage, Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523
Hands, Fractures of metacarpals and phalanges, 758
Heart, Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523
Heliotherapy, Sunlight in surgery, 371
Hepato-lienography, with thorotrast, 68
Hernia, in infant, with report of thirty-one cases, 505
Hiccup, 700
Hip, Shelf operations in treatment of congenital dislocation of, 81; Surgery of ankylosed, 747
Homografts, Is skin grafting with isografts or homografts practicable, ed. 786
Hormones, Physiological responses of ectopic ovarian and endometrial tissue, 553
Hospital staff conference, Clinical pathological conference, ed. 785
Hydrogen-ion concentration value, of tannic acid solutions used in treatment of burns, 455
Hydronephrosis, Resections of renal pelvis and other plastic operations for, end-results in thirteen cases, 508
Hypertension, Acceleration of circulation by operative measures, ed. 523
Hysterectomy, and artificial menopause, review of literature, report of ninety-one cases, 286
Hysteroroentgenography, The life history of lithopedion, 646

ILEOSTOMY, Indications for and technique of, in chronic ulcerative colitis, 196
Ileum, Surgical treatment of tuberculosis of large bowel, 494
Indiana Central Medical College, 792
Infant, Hernia in, with report of thirty-one cases, 505
Infection, Sunlight in surgery, 371
Instruments and apparatus: tocograph, metrodynamometre, kolpeurynterblase, New method for graphically recording contractions of parturient human uterus, study of effect of certain sedatives, anæsthetics, and stimulants upon uterus in labor, 45; Kramer splint, Wire extension treatment of fractures of fingers and metacarpal bones, 87; sunlamp, Sunlight in surgery, 371; X-ray spectroscope, Challenge to physicists, ed. 666; plethysmograph, Studies on peripheral vascular phenomena, new device for study of peripheral vascular phenomena in health and disease, 731, 737
Interbrain, Peptic ulcers and, 1
Intestine, Solid pure fibroma of mesentery in children, 244; Lethal factors in intestinal obstruction, ed. 383; Mucoid carcinoma of gastro-intestinal tract, so called colloid cancer, 409; Surgical treatment of tuberculosis of large bowel, 494; Exteriorization and obstructive resection of carcinoma of sigmoid, 501; Syphilis of jejunum, with case report, 518; Viability of strangulated intestinal loops, experimental study, 559
Iodized oil, Pelvic diagnosis by roentgen visualization, 207; Influence of gynecological conditions on genito-urinary tract as shown by simultaneous injections of skiodan or uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490
Isograft, Is skin grafting with, or homografts practicable, ed. 786

JAW, Fractures of, 762
Jaw bone, Management of fracture of mandible, 238
Jejunum, Peptic ulcers and interbrain, 1; Syphilis of, with case report, 518
Joints, Relation of pyogenic arthritis to osteomyelitis, 74; Surgery of ankylosed, 747

KEEN, William Williams, 120
Kidney, Ptosis, of, ed. 247; Bacterial concretions in pelvis, of, with report of two personal cases, 360; Tuberculous bacilluria and excretion tuberculosis, experimental study, 440; Spontaneous pyelitis in rabbit, ascending infection of urinary tract, relationship to this disease in man, 449; Influence of gynecological conditions on genito-urinary tract as shown by simultaneous injections of skiodan and uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490; Resections of pelvis of, and other plastic operations for hydronephrosis, end-results in thirteen cases, 508; Liver kidney syndrome, clinical, pathological and experimental studies, 570
Knee, Surgery of the ankylosed joint, 747

LABOR, complications in, Knotting of umbilical cord with report of two cases and illustrations of mechanism of knot formation, 96; Traumatic separation of symphysis pubis during spontaneous, with clinical and X-ray study of normal symphysis pubis during pregnancy and puerperium, 336; Vaginal versus rectal examinations in relation to obstetrical morbidity following the mercurochrome technique, analysis of 3,884 cases at Methodist Episcopal Hospital in Brooklyn, 771
Langenbuch, Carl, and the first cholecystectomy, ed. 117
Laporte University School of Medicine and Indiana Medical College, 673
Leg, Wire traction in fractures of lower extremity, 213
Lethal factors, in intestinal obstruction, ed. 383
Lithopedion, Life history of, 646
Liver, Hepatolienography with thorotrast, 68; Liver kidney syndrome, clinical, pathological, and experimental studies, 570; Challenge to physicists, ed. 666
Liver tissue, Anhydræmia as a possible cause of death in liver autolysis, 427
Lobectomy, Technique of, in one stage, 616
Lungs, Primary carcinoma of, with report of case treated by operation, 151; Obstructive pulomnary emphysema and collateral respiration, 303; Appraisal of surgical treatment of tuberculosis of, 607; Technique of lobectomy in one stage, 616; Postoperative pulmonary complications, 716

MAGGOTS, and their use in treatment of chronic osteomyelitis, 177
Malignancy, Cancer research in the Argentine, ed. 524; Tumors of the appendix, 590; Cancer, the menace of repeated examinations, ed. 667; Importance of trained radiologist in every cancer clinic, cor. 676
Mandible, Management of fracture of, 238; Fractures of the jaw, 762
Master Surgeons of America, Charles Allen Porter, 249; Lewis A. Sayre, 385; Jasper Halpenny, 527; Thomas L. Gilmer, 670; Joseph Price, 788
Memoirs, William Williams Keen, 120
Menopause, Hysterectomy and artificial, review of literature, report of ninety-one cases, 286; Surgical, after hysterectomy with and without ovarian conservation, 728
Mercurochrome, Vaginal versus rectal examinations in relation to obstetrical morbidity following the mercurochrome technique, analysis of 3,884 cases at Methodist Episcopal Hospital in Brooklyn, 771
Mesentery, Solid pure fibroma of, in children, 244
Metacarpals, Wire extension treatment of fractures of fingers and metacarpal bones, 87; Fractures of, and phalanges, 758
Method, Babcock colostomy, Operative treatment of carcinoma of rectosigmoid with methods for elimination of colostomy, 627; Gilliam, Surgical correction of uterine displacements, one hundred consecutive cases operated upon by modified, 659; Gunning, Fractures of the jaw, 762; Ivy and Curtis, Fractures of jaw, 762
Muscles, Benign angiomatous tumors of skeletal, 464
Mucous secretion, Mucoid carcinoma of gastro-intestinal tract, so called colloid cancer, 409

NEGRO, diseases of, Thyrotoxicosis in negro, 221
Nephrolithiasis, Bacterial concretions in kidney pelvis, with report of two personal cases, 360
Nerves, Visceral pain, 418; Presacral, Surgical anatomy of so called, 581
Nervous system, Acute head injury, study of one thousand cases, 365; Visceral pain, 418
Nicotine, Visceral pain, 418
Niles, John B., Laporte University School of Medicine and Indiana Medical College, 673

OBSTETRICS, Traumatic separation of the symphysis pubis during spontaneous labor, with clinical and X-ray study of normal symphysis pubis during pregnancy and puerperium, 336; Life history of a lithopedion, 646; Vaginal versus rectal examinations in relation to obstetrical morbidity following the mercu-

rochrome technique, an analysis of 3,884 cases at the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Brooklyn, 771
Œsophagus, Peptic ulcers, and interbrain, 1
Operation, Shelf, in treatment of congenital dislocation of hip, 81
Osteomyelitis, Relation of pyogenic arthritis to, 74; Maggots and their use in treatment of chronic, 177
Ovary, Hysterectomy and artificial menopause, review of literature, report of ninety-one cases, 286; Study of effects of roentgen rays on estrual cycle and ovaries of white rat, 596; Ovarian pregnancy, 643; Surgical menopause after hysterectomy with and without ovarian conservation, 728; Mortality factors in gynecology, statistical study of deaths from 1902 to 1932 at the Free Hospital for Women, Brookline, 777
Ovulation, Physiological and artificial stimulation, Physiological responses of ectopic ovarian and endometrial tissue, 553
Ovum, Physiological responses of ectopic ovarian and endometrial tissue, 553

PAIN, Visceral, 418; Surgical anatomy of so called presacral nerve, 581
Pancreas, Pancreatic lithiasis, 90; Rupture of, 652
Paralytics, Unusual considerations affecting reconstructive surgery for, 203
Pennsylvania Hospital of Philadelphia, 124
Peritonitis, chemical, Anhydræmia as a possible cause of death in liver autolysis, 427
Pessary, Surgical correction of uterine displacements, one hundred consecutive cases operated upon by modified Gilliam method, 659
Phalanges, Fractures of metacarpals and, 758
Physicists, Challenge to, ed. 666
Physiological responses, of ectopic ovarian and endometrial tissue, 553
Pituitary gland, Resection of pituitary adenomata, 330
Poliomyelitis, Unusual considerations affecting reconstructive surgery for paralytics, 203
Porter, Charles Allen, 249
Pregnancy, Eclampsia, its prevention and control by means of fluid limitation and dehydration, 129; Traumatic separation of symphysis pubis during spontaneous labor, with clinical and X-ray study of normal symphysis pubis during pregnancy and puerperium, 336; Physiological responses of ectopic ovarian and endometrial tissue, 553; Unruptured interstitial, 640; Ovarian, 643
Price, Joseph, 788
Prostate, Surgical anatomy of so called presacral nerve, 581; Incidence and prevention of perivesical suppuration following suprapubic cystotomy, 663
Puerperium, Traumatic separation of symphysis pubis during spontaneous labor, with clinical and X-ray study of normal symphysis pubis during pregnancy and, 336
Pulse volume, Studies on peripheral vascular phenomena, new device for study of peripheral vascular phenomena in health and disease, 731, 737
Pyuria, Spontaneous pyelitis in rabbit, ascending infection of urinary tract, its relationship to this disease in man, 449

RADIOLOGIST, Importance of trained, in every cancer clinic, cor. 676
Radium, Treatment of carcinoma of cervix with small quantities of, 481; Technique of suprapubic implantation of radon seeds in bladder carcinoma, 487; Importance of trained radiologist in every cancer clinic, cor. 676
Radon seeds, Technique of suprapubic implantation of, in bladder carcinoma, 487
Ramisection, Studies on peripheral vascular phenomena, observations on peripheral circulatory changes following unilateral cervical ganglionectomy and, 737
Rectal examinations, Vaginal versus, in relation to obstetrical morbidity following the mercurochrome technique, an analysis of 3,884 cases at Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Brooklyn, 771
Rectum, Mucoid carcinoma of gastro-intestinal tract, so called colloid cancer, 409; Operative treatment of carcinoma of rectosigmoid with methods for elimination of colostomy, 627
Respiration, Respiratory complications following general anæsthesia, 162; Experimental studies on subarachnoid anæsthesia, paralysis of vital medullary centers, 290; Obstructive pulmonary emphysema and collateral, 303
Respiratory system, Postoperative pulmonary complications, 716
Rock Island Medical College, and College of Physicians and Surgeons of Upper Mississippi, 252
Roentgenography, Pelvic diagnosis by roentgen visualization, 207; Traumatic separation of symphysis pubis during spontaneous labor, with clinical and X-ray study of normal symphysis pubis during pregnancy and puerperium, 336; Hæmangioma of vertebræ, 374; Influence of gynecological conditions on genito-urinary tract as shown by simultaneous injections of skiodan or uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490
Roentgen rays, Study of effects of, on estrual cycle and ovaries of white rat, 596
Roentgentherapy, Diagnosis and treatment of malignant tonsil conditions, 633
Roffo, A. H., Cancer research in Argentine, ed. 524

SAYRE, Lewis A., 385
Scalp, Acute head injury, study of one thousand cases, 365
Sedatives, New method for graphically recording contractions of parturient human uterus, study of effect of certain, anæsthetics, and stimulants, upon uterus in labor, 45
Seminal vesicles, Surgical anatomy of so called presacral nerve, 581
Sigmoid, Exteriorization and obstructive resection of carcinoma of, 501; Operative treatment of carcinoma of rectosigmoid with methods for elimination of colostomy, 627
Skin grafting, Is, with isografts or homografts practicable, ed. 786
Skiodan, Influence of gynecological conditions on genito-urinary tract as shown by simultaneous injections of, or uroselectan (intravenously) and lipiodol, preliminary report, 490
Skull, Resection of pituitary adenomata, 330; Acute head injury, study of one thousand cases, 365
Specimens, preparation of, The clinical pathological conference, ed. 785
Spectroscope, X-ray, Challenge to physicists, ed. 666
Spleen, Hepato-lienography with thorotrast, 68
Stimulants, New method for graphically recording contractions of parturient human uterus, study of effect of certain sedatives, anæsthetics, and, 45
Stomach, Peptic ulcers and interbrain, 1; Etiology of ulcers of, experimental studies, 265; Recent developments in treatment of lesions of, 355; Mucoid carcinoma of gastro-intestinal tract, so called colloid cancer, 409

Strangulated intestinal loops, viability of, experimental study, 559
